

Simon Stephens's imaginative stage adaptation of Mark Haddon's internationally renowned novel, directed by Marianne Elliott of War Horse.

This event is designed to connect people in the autism community, including autistic people and their families, as well as educators, clinicians, caregivers, and other interested members of the community.

The event will include a Q&A with local speakers who will give their reactions to the performance, moderate an audience discussion, and help people share information on local autism resources.
